MYP Assessment Task Sheet

Unit Title	Unit 1 - Introduction to Physical Theatre
Significant Concept/s	Physical movements can non-verbally communicate different kinds of characters and narratives (stories) to an audience.
Unit Question	How can we effectively use our bodies to create convincing characters and interesting visual stories?

Task Overview
What do you have to do?	Part 1/Criterion A: Investigate a genre of performing arts OR one famous performance artist that uses the skills of pantomime to tell a story. A separate sheet is attached with the names of famous genres of performing arts that uses pantomime. Make your selection from this list.  You will complete a mind map of your chosen art form or performer.  You will present your information to the rest of the class, you may choose the format, but the suggestion is to use Keynote or Google slides.  Part 2/ Criterion B: You will also submit three paragraphs which answer three questions (questions below) about what you have learned about pantomime so far and how you will use this knowledge in your pantomime performance.
How will you be assessed? (See more explanation below)	By USING KNOWLEDGE of how the principles and skills of pantomime are used in different art forms or how the principles and skills of pantomime have been adopted and developed by a famous pantomime.  By RESPONDING you will identify how the art form or famous pantomime you have researched has developed your understanding and how you will incorporate this new knowledge into your own performance.
Due Date: TBD - Managebac will be updated.	You will be allocated three class lessons to work on the task. Any more work required will be need to be done at home.
